This guy obviously doesn't understand English. It says that those that are INFECTED should cover their faces and quarantine. Remember, that Jesus ministered to the Leper. He did not hide behind a mask nor did he cower in his Mother's basement.

From a public health perspective, a child this age should NOT be wearing a mask. It encourages the child & worker to touch the face repeatedly which will advance not prevent disease spread. Especially since this child is playing on the floor

From a public health perspective, a child this age should NOT be wearing a mask. It encourages the child & worker to touch the face repeatedly which will advance not prevent disease spread. Especially since this child is playing on the floor

Why did law enforcement keep saying they couldn't follow Brian because there was no evidence?

The 911 call on Aug. 12 from a citizen saying Brian hit her numerous times in van was plenty of evidence.

If acted upon properly it might have saved her life.

This has nothing to do with health. Throughout history when a dictatorship gov wants to seize absolute control over a society, they do so via fear & creating laws that abolish freedoms based off the created fear, all to "help" the people of course. In the end, people suffer!

hospitals are supposed to run at full capacity- they make money that way. kinda like hotels

Our local hospital group said they were full, local news fearmongering it as huge news, libs blaming/spewing hatred at Un-v'd on SM, deep in article stated only 70/550 were covid.

A bad bus accident on the interstate could overwhelm hospitals, too.

Right now it's literally to the point of opening overflows and praying for the best. Mainly because ER's (I'm there often) reach capacity, the waiting room reaches capacity. I have seen ER beds wait a very long time for a admission. All of this clogs the entire hospital system

lisa @lisa99491828 · 4h
I recall similar situations in particularly bad flu seasons. Many panic and go to ER, just to be told it's the flu, go home and treat. Clogs the ER, and infects

Crazy-this "mishap?", affects only smokers trying to quit. Now we should "trust" them with a jab for all?

Lorene Harvey @LoreneHarvey10 · 14h
Replying to @RealMattCouch
Okay, after whatever time frame this promoted "drug" has been on the market to "help" smokers quit, a major health hazard with the "drug" has been established. Interesting, with basically no time from product to market for the jab, everyone is expected to line up and take it.

Chairman Biden and Nancy Pelosi ARE the rich…yet they blame capitalism for our economic problems.

They know the REAL problem is government interfering in the free market but they don't care to do anything about it.

Capitalism for themselves/socialism for the rest of us 🤡

> Peter Schiff @PeterSchiff
> Biden and @SpeakerPelosi want to reform capitalism, as they claim it made the rich richer during the pandemic. But had the government allowed capitalism to work, the rich would have lost money during the pandemic. The government can't bail out the rich and then blame capitalism

The truth? You're comparing Ashli Babbitt who was unarmed, had no weapon, was trying to protest with her voice, and was murdered at the Capitol on Jan 6 to a 9/11 Terrorist who flew a plane full of people into the World Trade Centers..

For the dolts on the left who literally have ZERO common sense or logic.

NO ONE is condoning what happened at the Capitol.

But you comparing the Capitol to September 11, is an absolute disgrace to those nearly 3,000 who died, and those thousands of troops who also died in war

I'm not promoting anything stud, The fact you're trying to compare a Terrorist who flew a plane full of people into the World Trade Center on 9/11 to Ashli Babbitt who was an unarmed 14-year Air Force Veteran MURDERED at the Capitol..

I could out preach you any day of the week..

For the dolts on the left who literally have ZERO common sense or logic.

NO ONE is condoning what happened at the Capitol.

But you comparing the Capitol to September 11, is an absolute disgrace to those nearly 3,000 who died, and those thousands of troops who also died in war

Here's another one who claims to be a minister @leadpastor would you like to drop some knowledge on this dolt..

He just compared Ashli Babbitt who was murdered at the Capitol to Mohamed Atta who flew a plane into the World Trade Center..

> Rev. Dr. Chuck Currie @RevChuckCurrie
> Ashli Babbitt was a terrorist who joined in an insurrection against the United States of America. With other MAGA brown shirts, she tried to overthrow the results of a free and fair presidential election. I pray for her family. She'll forever be remembered alongside Mohamed Atta.

I think there is an even bigger problem out there. Almost no professing Christians are following the teachings of Jesus, in fact they willfully ignore them.

When was the last time you heard someone say they are trying to live by the example Jesus and the early christian set?

In a matter of months we have riots in the streets, a stolen election, forced vaccinations, our constitutional rights stripped away from us, our southern border flooded with illegal aliens, Afghanistan falls & more.

I think there is an even bigger problem out there. Almost no professing Christians are following the teachings of Jesus, in fact they willfully ignore them.

When was the last time you heard someone say they are trying to live by the example Jesus and the early christian set?

Doesn't add up. You murder your girl friend and then drive back home? I think they had a fight and he left her. There was another murderer in the area. But he's hiding because he feels guilty and knows he never should have left her

If he didn't do it, then why is he hiding / killed himself. Why didn't he call and report her missing? Why aren't his parents out there saying their son is innocent? Why isn't he out there proclaiming his innocence? Makes zero sense that he didn't do it my dude

There's a girl on TikTok who did a video on this and pointed out several other women missing/killed in same area and feels it's being overlooked, perhaps intentionally

How we should be reacting to covid based on evidence as I see it.

1. People who have had covid should live completely normal lives. Their risk from covid is tiny. They won't spread covid either, so it is very safe to be around them. The evidence on this is very, very clear.

Masks don't control the spread of respiratory viruses. How do we know?

1. Widely studied and accepted prior to 2020.
2. Studies in favor of masking are shockingly weak.
3. Oceans of data from past 18 months - if masks worked we would see it. But we don't.

Details follow.

Pre-covid, the fact that masks are not effective for controlling the spread of respiratory viruses had been well studied for decades and the near-unanimous and completely uncontroversial conclusion was that they don't help

Charles Brewer @charlesbrew 21

Here is May a 2020 CDC meta study of RCTs that concludes there is no benefit of face masks for controlling influenza.

Empathizing with human suffering doesn't mean you're not for America. You don't have to trade one for the other either. Both bringing more immigrants to the country, AND being cold and callous towards desperate people are BOTH two extremes

Balance, not black and white thinking.

1) They're not duplicate ballots. They are duplicate envelope scans. Envelopes are scanned more than once when signature curing occurs. Only 1 ballot is in the envelope
2) Signatures can be cured for up to 5 days post election in AZ. It makes sense to happen near Election Day.

1) They're not duplicate ballots. They are duplicate envelope scans. Envelopes are scanned more than once when signature curing occurs. Only 1 ballot is in the envelope.
2) Signatures can be cured for up to 5 days post election in AZ. It makes sense to happen near Election Day.

The communist isn't particularly good at math. The correct answer is 52 Senators, Senator.

Bernie Sanders @SenSanders
2 senators cannot be allowed to defeat what 48 senators and 210 House members want. We must stand with the working families of our country. We must combat climate change. We must delay passing the Infrastructure Bill until we pass a strong Reconciliation Bill.
